

When Jesus is traveling to Jerusalem, a rich young ruler comes up to him.

The man asks, “What good deed must I do to have eternal life?”

Jesus asks the man,
“Why ask me about what is good?
To answer your question,
if you want to receive eternal life,
keep the commandments.”

The rich young ruler says, “I’ve obeyed all these commandments.
What else must I do?”

Jesus says, “Go and sell all your possessions and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven.”

The man becomes sad and walks away from Jesus.

The man is rich and has many things he loves that he does not want to give up.

Jesus tells the disciples,
“It is very hard for a rich person to enter the Kingdom of Heaven.
It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle.”

The disciples ask,
“Who in the world can be saved?”

Jesus responds,
“Humanly speaking, it is impossible.
But with God everything is possible.”
