

The soldiers take Jesus to Caiaphas, the high priest.

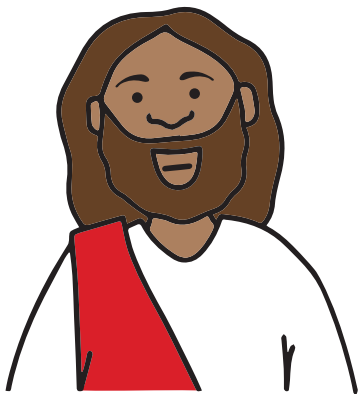

Caiaphas asks Jesus,
“Are you then the Son of God?”

Jesus answers, "I am."

They take Jesus to Pilate,
the Roman Governor,
who asks Jesus if he is a king.

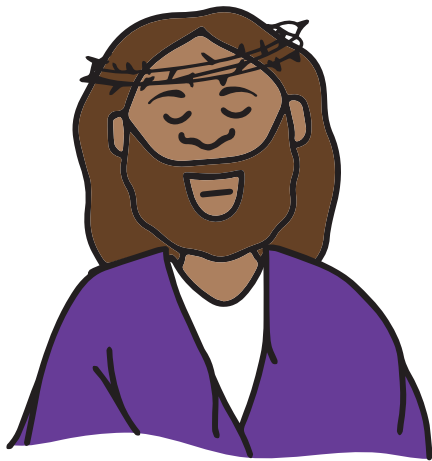

Jesus replies that he is.

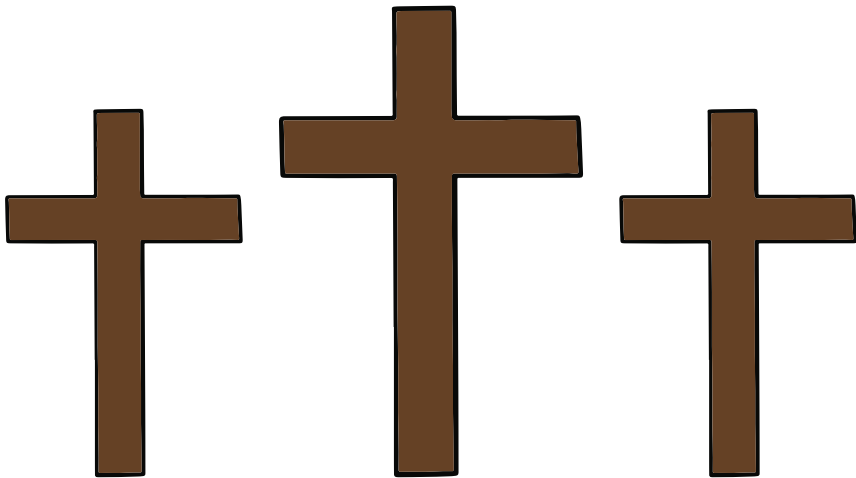

Pilate sends Jesus to Herod
who makes fun of Jesus.

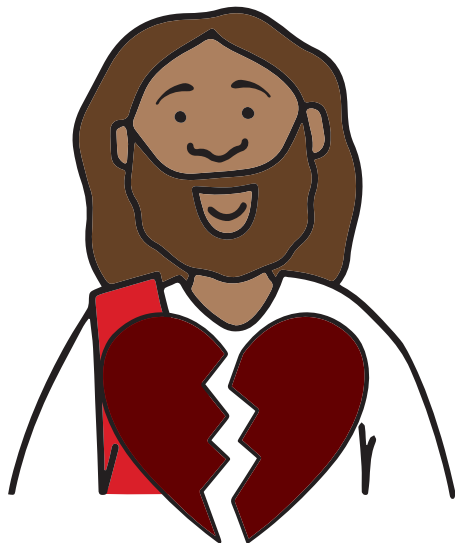

Pilate places a purple robe
on Jesus' shoulders and a crown of thorns on Jesus' head.

Jesus is hung on a cross
along with two criminals.

Jesus dies on the cross
taking our sin forever.

Joseph gets Jesus' body
to bury in a tomb.
