

Saul was a Pharisee
who made rules about God
and hated followers of Jesus.

Saul put people in prison
if they followed Jesus.

Saul is on his way to Damascus.
Suddenly, a bright light
from heaven shines on Saul.

Saul falls onto the ground
and a voice says, “Saul! Saul! Why are you working
so hard against me?”

The voice replies,
“I am Jesus, the one you are working so hard against.”

When Saul opens his eyes,
he is blind.

When Saul gets to the city,
a follower of Jesus named Ananias is there.

The Lord told Ananias in a dream to go speak to Saul.

Ananias places his hands
on Saul's eyes. Instantly, something like scales fall off.

Saul believes in Jesus and starts telling others about him.

