

Saul was telling people
that Jesus was God's son.

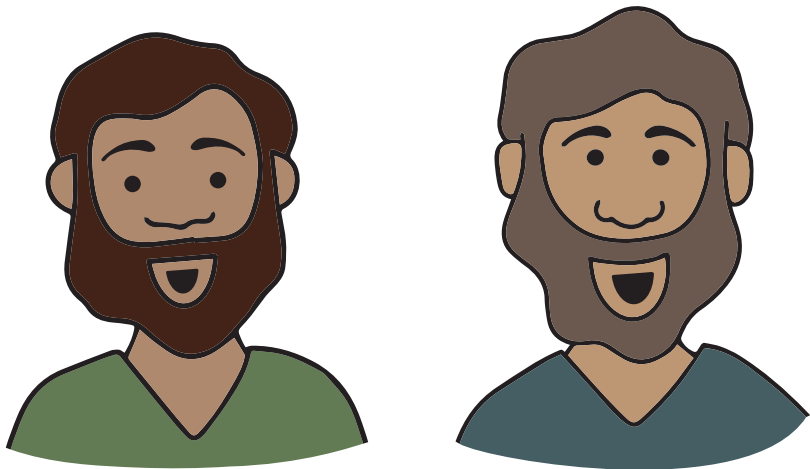

After Saul became
a follower of Jesus,
people began calling him Paul.

There are still rules that say
you cannot talk about Jesus,
but Paul knows he has
to tell others about God.

Paul and Barnabas travel to preach the Good News about Jesus.

When they go to Lystra,
they come across a man who has not been able to use his feet
since the day he was born.

Paul calls out,
“Stand up on your feet!”

The man jumps up
and begins to walk.

The crowd sees what Paul has done by God's power.

Many people believe
and their lives are changed.

Paul continues to do what God wants him to do.
