

This is a story from the Bible.

Paul travels to Athens.

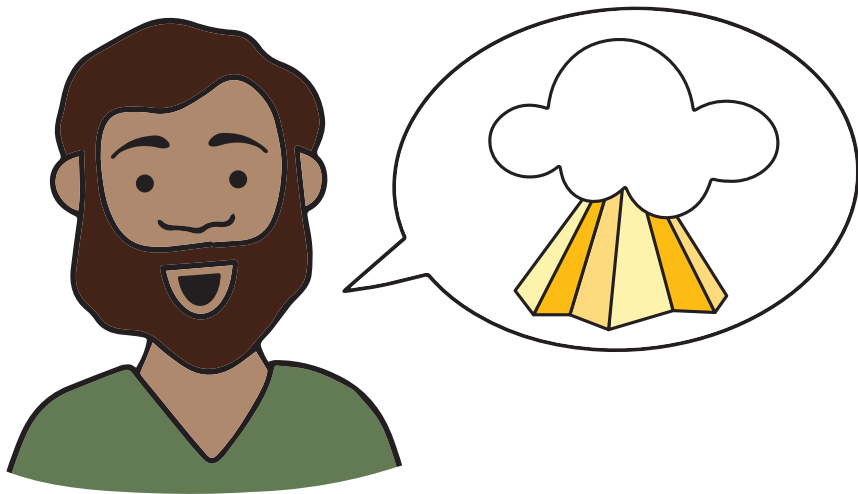

He sees idols everywhere.

He notices one of the idols has a sign that says
“TO AN UNKNOWN GOD.”

TO AN UNKNOWN GOD

Paul begins speaking about the one true God.

The people have never heard of this God before.

He begins to tell the people,
“He is the God who made the world and everything in it.”

Some people laugh at Paul and make fun of what he is saying.

HA

HA

HA

HA

Others become followers
and believe in Jesus.

