

He heard footsteps.

He had been passed by twice.

The man traveling on the road was a stranger from Samaria.

People didn't like Samaritans.

The Samaritan noticed the man lying hurt on the side of the road.

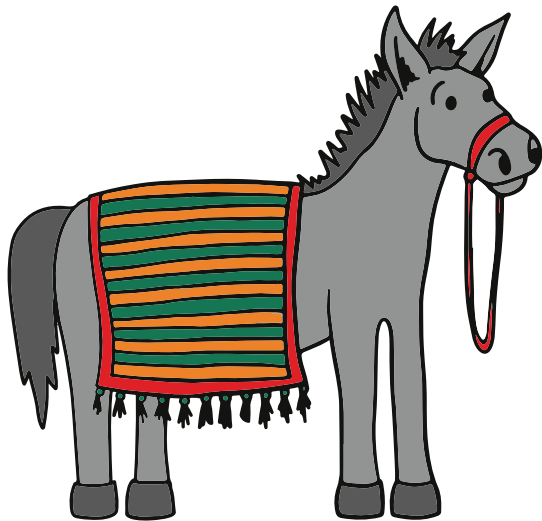

He wanted to help.

The Samaritan bandaged
the hurt man's wounds.

He put the man on his donkey
and took him to the nearest hotel.

Jesus asks, “Which of these three men was a neighbor?”

The one who stopped and helped him.

