

Daniel is a prophet and God uses him to understand dreams and tell others what they mean.

Most of the people of Israel do not worship God, so God allows them to be taken by the Babylonians.

Nebuchadnezzar is the king of Babylon and he is very proud of himself.

He forgets that God is the One who gives him the ability to be a powerful king.

King Nebuchadnezzar has a dream
that he doesn't understand.

He asks all the wise men what the dream means, but they are not able to understand it.

Then Daniel goes to see the king and God allows Daniel to know what it means.

Daniel tells the king
that God is going to take away Nebuchadnezzar's kingdom if he continues to brag.

But King Nebuchadnezzar
continues to brag and he forgets
that he could not have done anything without God.

So God says, “Your kingdom has been taken from you and you will live with the beasts in the field until you know that God rules over all men and gives power to whomever he chooses!”
