

Jesus and his disciples crossed
over the Sea of Galilee,
and many people followed Jesus.

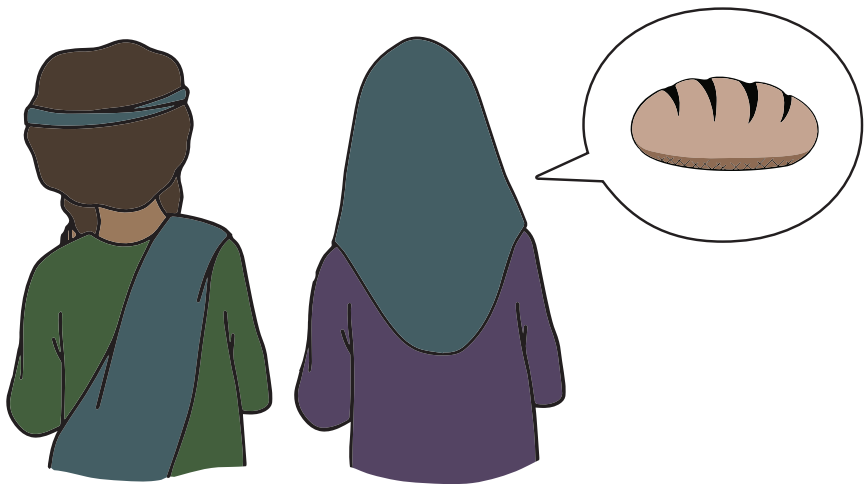

Jesus sees the crowd and speaks to them about God's kingdom.

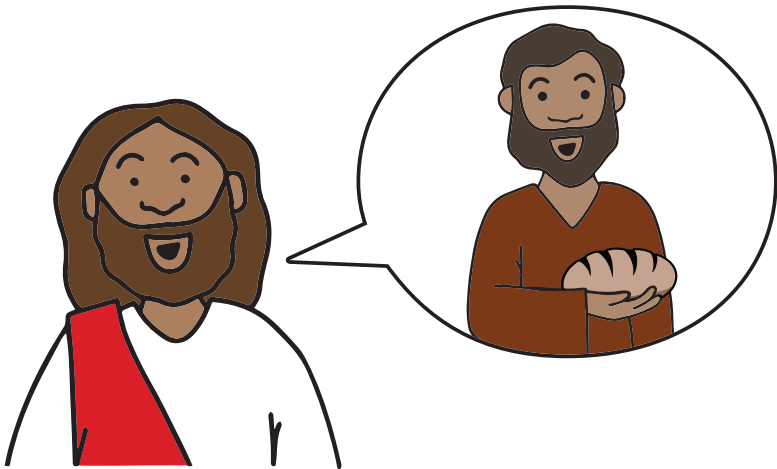

Around dinnertime
the people get hungry.

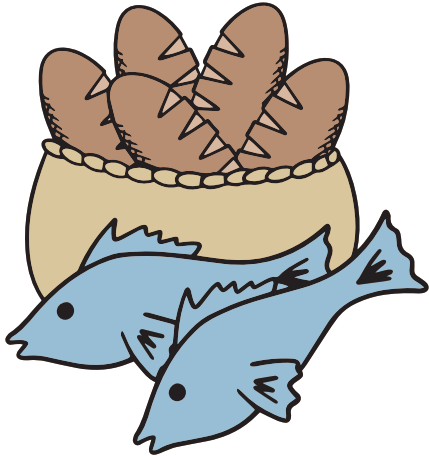

Jesus' disciples tell Jesus he should send the people away so they can get food.

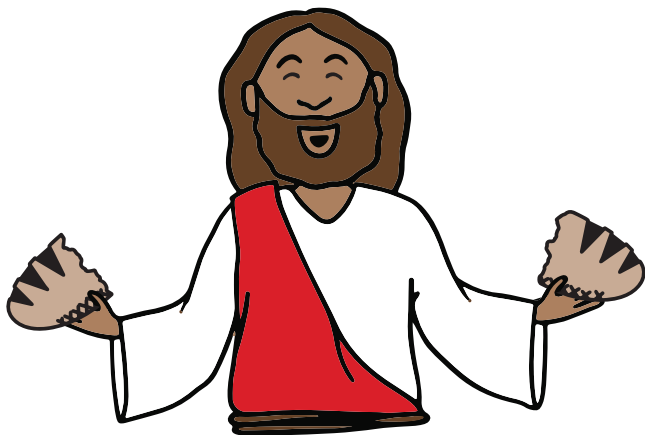

Jesus tells the disciples,
“You give them something to eat.”

There are over 5,000 people.
The disciples say, “We only have five loaves and two fish.”

Jesus takes bread and looks up toward Heaven
and thanks God the Father.

He breaks the bread into pieces
and tells the disciples to set it
in front of all the people.

Jesus then does
the same with the fish.

The people eat as much as they want and are satisfied.
There were 12 baskets of leftovers!
