

As Jesus reaches the border between Galilee and Samaria, ten people with leprosy
stand at a distance.

When people get leprosy they have to leave the city
and stay away from other people.

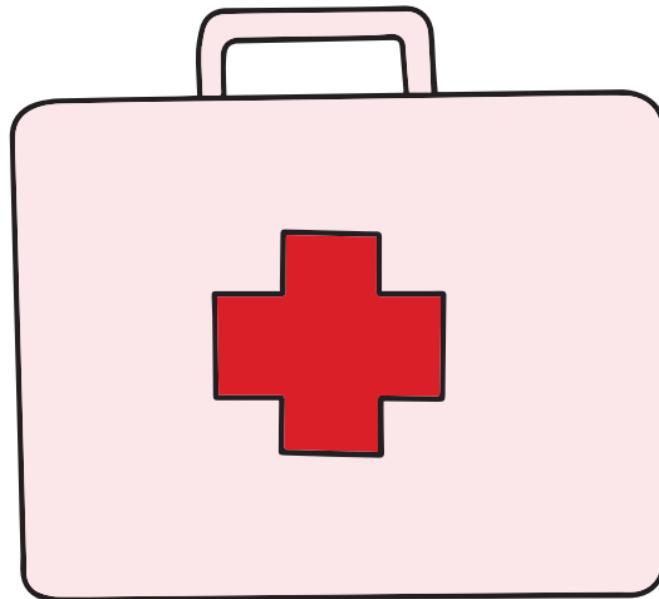

The men with leprosy are crying out
“Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!”

He looks at them and says,
“Go show yourselves to the priest.”

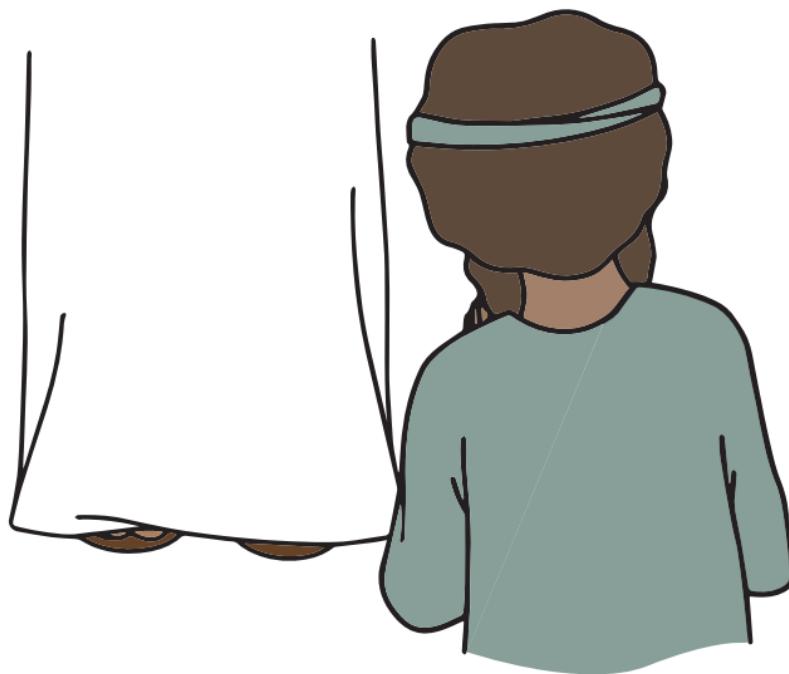

As they go,
they are cleansed of their leprosy.

One of them comes back to Jesus
when he is healed and shouts, “Praise God!”

He falls to the ground at Jesus' feet, thanking him.

Jesus asks, “Didn’t I heal ten men?
Where are the other nine?”

Jesus says,
“Stand up and go.
Your faith has healed you.”
