LESSON:

This story is from Mark 14:12-26 in the Bible (1). Several days after Jesus rides into Jerusalem, the time comes to get ready for the Passover meal.

Jesus tells the disciples, “Look for a man carrying a jar of water. Follow him wherever he goes. Ask the person in charge of the house. ‘Where is the guest room where I can eat the Passover with my disciples?’ He will take you to the room upstairs. Then you can begin to prepare the food.” The disciples do just as Jesus told them. After they follow him to the room upstairs, they get the Passover meal ready.

That evening, Jesus and the twelve disciples eat Passover (2). As they sit and eat, Jesus says, “One of you, who is eating with me, is going to betray me.” (3) This makes all the disciples very sad. The person who is going to betray Jesus is going to turn him over to his enemies. Several of the disciples ask if it is them.

The one who will betray Jesus is named Judas. He will betray Jesus to his enemies for a few pieces of money (4). Judas has been with Jesus and is supposed to be his friend.

As they are eating, Jesus takes bread, blesses it, and tears it apart (5). He gives it to his disciples, and he says, “Take, eat; this is my body (6) which is given for you; do this in remembrance of me.” Then he takes the cup of wine and he gives it to them and they all drink (7) from it. He says to them, “This cup is the new covenant (8) in my blood, which is shed for you.” Jesus is using the bread and the wine as symbols to explain to his disciples that he will sacrifice himself for them.

Because Jesus told us to do this to remember him, we now call this the Lord’s Supper (9), and we do this to remind ourselves of what Jesus did for us on the cross.

Key Point: Jesus saves us from our sin.
