LESSON:

It wasn't long until he heard ANOTHER set of footsteps (1). He wanted to believe that this person would reach down to help him, but he had already been passed by twice (2).

The man who was traveling on the road this time was a stranger from Samaria (3). People didn't like Samaritans (4). The hurt man thought that it was very unlikely that the Samaritan would help him. However, as the Samaritan passed by, he noticed the man who was lying beaten and hurt on the side of the road (5). He wanted to help (6). The Samaritan got off of his donkey and bent down next to the man to get a closer look at the injuries. Gently, he put oil over the man's wounds. Next, the Samaritan gently bandaged the hurt man's wounds (7). After the Samaritan put oil on and bandaged the hurt man's wounds, he carefully put the man on his very own donkey and took him to the nearest hotel (8). The Samaritan stayed with the hurt man overnight and took care of him.

The next morning, the Samaritan had to leave and knew he couldn't take the hurt man with him. When the Samaritan paid the bill, he gave the innkeeper extra money, saying, "Take care of him, feed him, and make sure he has everything he needs. If he owes you any money after he gets well and leaves, write it down, and I will pay the bill the next time I come by." Then, the Samaritan left.

Jesus, after finishing the story, asks the smart man, "Which of these three men was a neighbor (9) to the stranger on the street: The pastor, Levite, or Samaritan?" The smart man, embarrassed that he failed at tricking Jesus, answers, "The one who stopped and helped him (10), the Good Samaritan." Jesus says, "That's right. Now YOU go and do the same."
