LESSON:

This is a story from Acts 17:16-34 in the Bible (1). As Paul travels, he goes to a city called Athens (2). He sees idols everywhere (3). An idol is something people worship instead of God. The people in Athens have made rock and wood statues and worship them. As he looks around the city, he notices that one of the idols has a sign that says, “TO AN UNKNOWN GOD.” (4)

Paul begins speaking to the people there about the one true God (5). He is preaching the Good News about Jesus, telling them that Jesus has risen from the dead. The people of Athens think that Paul has some strange ideas. The people have never heard of this God before (6). Paul speaks to them and tells them, “I ... found an altar to an ‘unknown god’ you worship. Now I am going to tell you about this ‘unknown god,’ the God you do not know.”

He begins to tell the people, “He is the God who made the world and everything in it (7). He is the Lord of heaven and earth. He gives life and breath to all people. He also gives them everything else they have.” Paul tells the people that God commands people to turn away from their sin and explains how they can know this God who raised Jesus from the dead.

Some people laugh at Paul and make fun of what he is saying (8). But others become followers and believe in Jesus (9). Jesus is not an unknown god to them any longer. They know the real God. He is the only God and is worthy of being worshiped and the only one who can change people’s hearts and lives.

Again, God uses Paul’s changed life to speak to others about Jesus. More lives are changed as people hear the truth about who God is. God is a Life Changer. He can change our lives and hearts, too.

Key Point: Only God can change our hearts and lives.
