

By Design | Week 4

1. In what areas of your life are you loving yourself more than God?
2. In what areas are you loving yourself more than others?
3. How do you need to take ownership of cultivating your faith (scripture, community, personal relationship)?
4. In what ways is God in your head and not your heart (knowledge without personal relationship)?
5. Can you think of a moment when God wanted you to love someone, but you missed it?
6. The assignment to love God and love others requires sacrifice. What are you struggling to sacrifice?
7. How do you need to take a step towards taking ownership of your assignment?

Mosaic:

1. In what areas of your life are you loving yourself more than God?
2. Who in your life does God want you to love more than yourself?
3. Which of the ways to cultivate your faith (scripture, community, personal relationship) do you need to grow in? How do you want to grow?
4. What does sacrifice mean? Is there something you should sacrifice in your life for God or something else?
