

1. What does approval mean? Is this something that is important to us?
2. What are some ways you try to get approval from people? Why doesn't this seem to work?
3. What is the difference between approval from God and Approval from people? Why is finding approval from God better than approval from people?
4. What does it look like to find our approval from God?
5. What's a way you can try to practice that this week?