

Child's Name: Irene Wanjiku Njeri

Sex: Female

Date of Birth: September 15, 2003

Irene's Story:

Irene lives in the farmers' slums with her mother, Sarah, and her three siblings. Her mother grew up working as house help, where she was abused and mistreated. Sarah now struggles to provide for the basic needs of her children by washing clothes and selling chicken intestines whenever she can. Irene is old enough to be in school but is not enrolled because her mother cannot afford the tuition.

The sponsorship funds will provide tuition, school uniform and school feeding in addition to the spiritual, academic, physical, emotional and social formation that are a part of Happy Day's program.
