

Week 1 | Daniel

Big idea: When we face trials in our life, we can either take the easy way out, or stand firm trusting God in the process.

Application: Help students to identify whether they are taking the easy option when challenges come, or if they are willing to live a “small life” by following faithfully in the small things in their day-to-day lives.

Discussion Questions

- Take 1-2 minutes to look over your notes. What are your initial thoughts from the teaching or what stood out to you?
- What questions do you have? Did anything not make sense?
- How do you need to move in response to what you heard?

Additional Discussion Questions

- We all have things in our life that we find challenging, but when these challenges do come, how does it affect your ability to trust in God?
- Daniel and his men were faithful to God and trusted him no matter the circumstance. Have you ever had to do this before?
- Daniel owns responsibility in his life by faithfully following God in every area of his life? Where do you need to take ownership of responsibility in your life?
- What do you think it looks like to trust God in the small things in your life? What would this look like for you?
