

During Advent, we remember the humble birth of Jesus. As we wait in hope for his second coming, when all things will be made new, let us pray for those experiencing the brokenness of the world and for those working to provide healing. During a season that can be so self-focused, may we fix our eyes on Jesus and those who bear his image.

SUNDAY	MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY	SATURDAY
	The elderly and those in assisted living	Students and children experiencing a broken world	3 Medical professionals	DSS and foster care workers	Parents, for wisdom in raising their children	6 God is sovereign. Colossians 1:15-20
7 Those struggling financially	Those strugging with anxiety/ depression	9 Those seperated from family	10 Non-profits serving the vulnerable	Counselors and therapists	Caregivers of aging parents or individuals with mental illness	God is faithful. 2 Timothy 2:11–13
14 The medically vulnerable	Those fighting addictions	Those grieving death of a loved one	Pastors and church staff	First responders (police, fire, EMT)	Leadership placed over us (bosses, elected officials, etc.)	God is our help. Psalm 146
Those who are doubting or spiritually dry	Victims of abuse or injustice	Those feeling lonely	Teachers and educators	Foster and adoptive parents	Caregivers of individuals with disabilities	God's promise is fulfilled. Revelation 21:1–8
Those in a season of waiting	29 Those walking in spiritual darkness	30 New believers	31 Volunteer leaders in the church			For More Advent Resources:

"He will swallow up death forever! The Sovereign Lord will wipe away all tears. He will remove forever all insults and mockery against his land and people. The Lord has spoken! In that day the people will proclaim, 'This is our God! We trusted in him, and he saved us! This is the Lord, in whom we trusted. Let us rejoice in the salvation he brings!"

