

Week 2

- We talked about how the sailors acted more like believers than Jonah did, even though Jonah identified with God. Do you think people in your life can tell by your actions that you follow Jesus?
- God showed compassion to us when we were dead to our sin by sending his son to free us from death and give us life. Now, followers of Jesus are called to show the same compassion to others. How can you show compassion to three people in your life this week?
