Yellow Group

Situation #1

John loves to play video games. His parents got him a new game for Christmas, and he has been playing it non-stop for a week. His parents tell him he needs to take a break, but he doesn't listen to them. They ground him for being disobedient and take away his game. He gets really upset and is afraid they're going to get rid of the game for good. He doesn't know what he'll do without the game because it's his absolute favorite.

Situation #2

Stephanie was playing tag with her friends. She pushed a few people out of the way while trying to get away from the person who was it. Her friend Nathan told her that she was being mean and unkind for playing the way she was, but she just ignored him and kept playing. A few other kids got upset with her, so she left the playground and wouldn't talk to anyone for the rest of recess. She decided she didn't want to be friends with them anymore.
