

Jonah's Prayer

Jonah 2:1-9

Then Jonah prayed to the LORD his God from inside the fish. He said,
"I cried out to the LORD in my great trouble,
and he answered me.

I called to you from the land of the dead,
and LORD, you heard me!

You threw me into the ocean depths,
and I sank down to the heart of the sea.

The mighty waters engulfed me;
I was buried beneath your wild and stormy waves.

Then I said, 'O LORD, you have driven me from your presence.
Yet I will look once more toward your holy Temple.'

"I sank beneath the waves,
and the waters closed over me.
Seaweed wrapped itself around my head.

I sank down to the very roots of the mountains.
I was imprisoned in the earth,
whose gates lock shut forever.

But you, O LORD my God,
snatched me from the jaws of death!

As my life was slipping away,
I remembered the LORD.

And my earnest prayer went out to you in your holy Temple.

Those who worship false gods
turn their backs on all God's mercies.

But I will offer sacrifices to you with songs of praise,
and I will fulfill all my vows.

For my salvation comes from the LORD alone."

Then the LORD ordered the fish to spit Jonah out onto the beach.
