

Jeffrey has a problem with lying to his parents about things. He learned in Camp Grace that he should honor and respect his parents. He knows he needs to stop lying to his parents. His teacher helps him understand that the lying comes from his sinful heart.

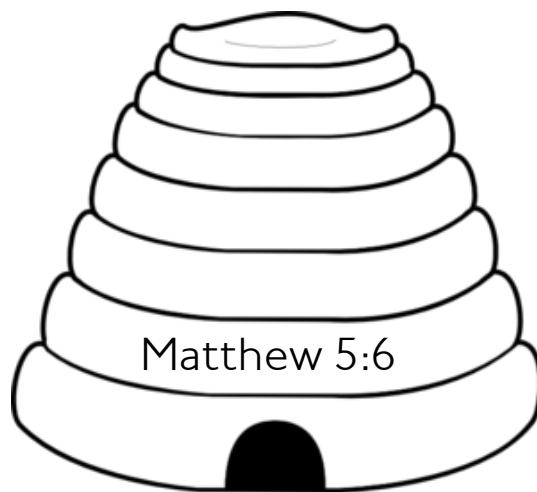

Sarah just found out that her mom is very sick. She cried a lot at first, but then she realized that all she could do was trust that God would take care of her mom. She gave her mom a big hug and told her how much she loved her.

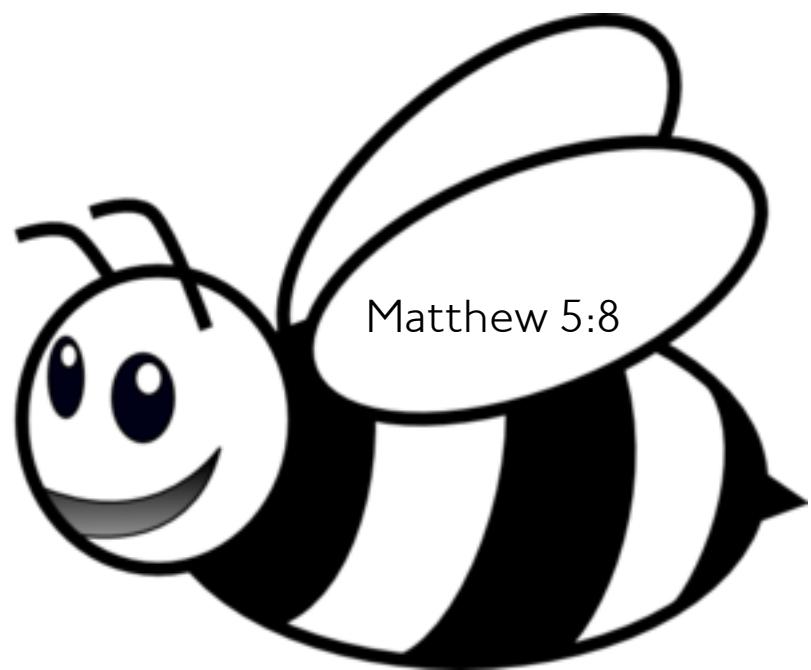

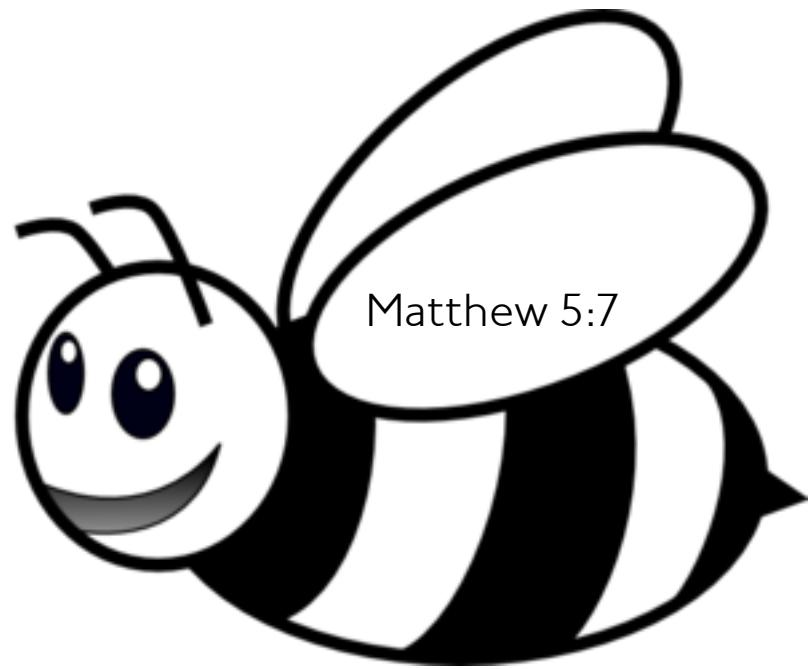

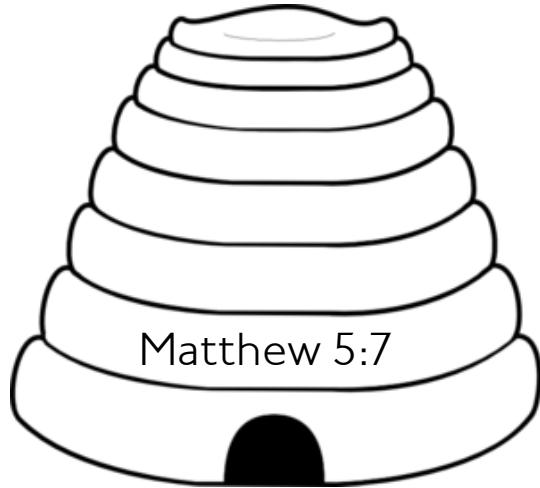

Jacob earned some money for doing a chore for a neighbor. He knows what he wants to do with it, but his younger brother says that he has an idea. Jacob decides to listen to his younger brother's idea instead of acting like he knows what the best choice is.

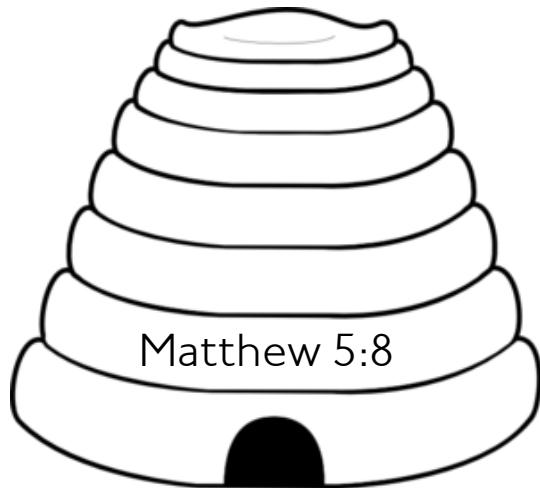

Elizabeth reads her Bible and asks her parents to help her understand what it means.

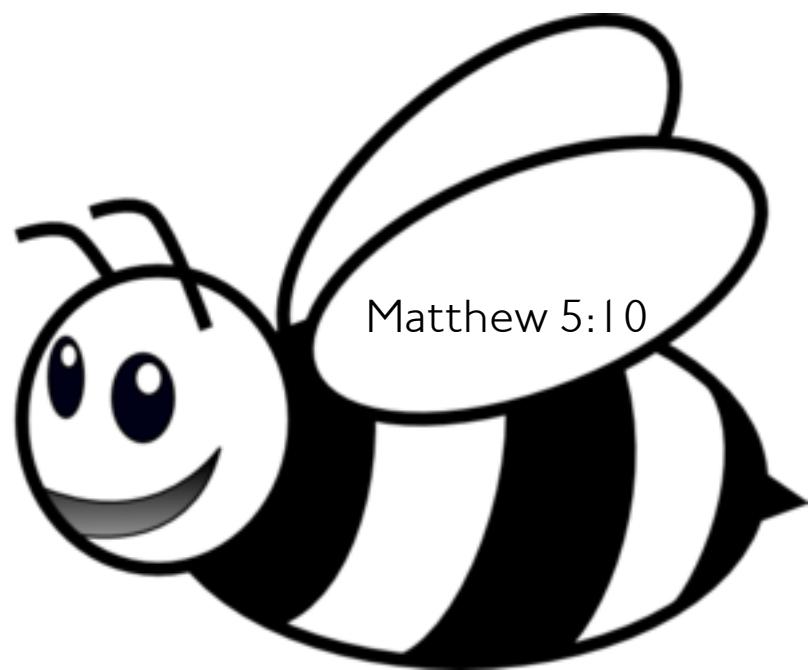

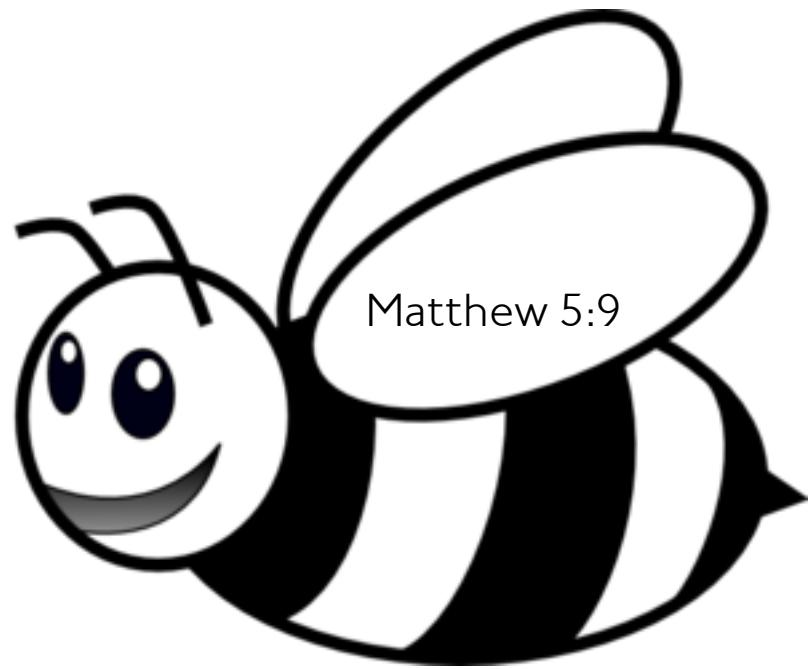

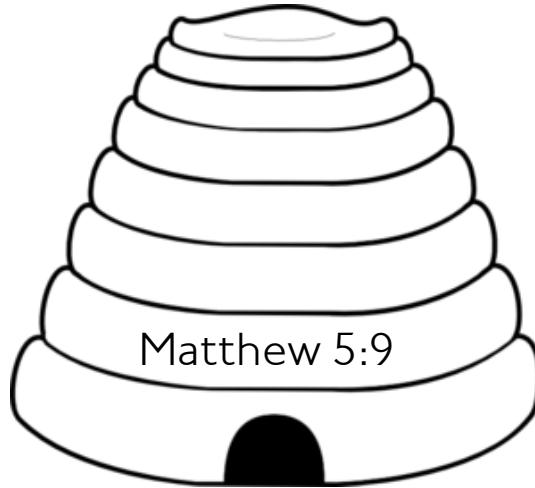

Julie comforts her friend when she hurts herself on the playground.

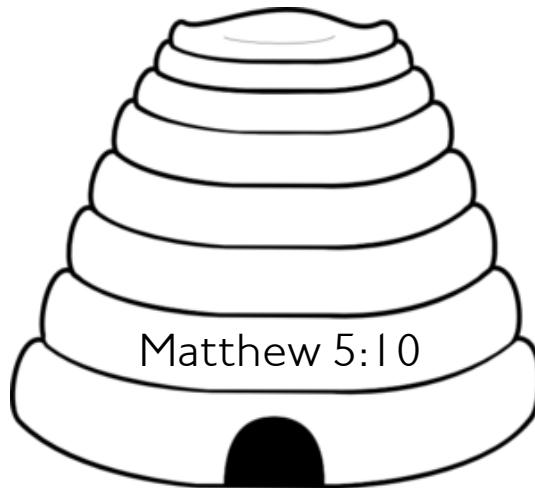

Cindy tells her friend she can't watch a certain program on TV because it teaches things she knows are wrong.

Anthony settles an argument between his brother and sister.

Beth stood up for the new girl in class when others were picking on her for her accent, and others then began to make fun of Beth.