

Our goal is to see you experience real life change while you work towards completion of the program by demonstrating full sobriety and recovery, participating in support services, obtaining and maintaining employment, becoming financially independent, with the ultimate goal of spiritual maturity. Completion of the program is expected between 24-36 months.

Personal Responsibilities

- No alcohol or drugs allowed on premises.
- Prescription drugs must be stored in a personal medicine safe in individual rooms.
- Drug tests are required at any time. A positive drug test will result in further evaluation to remain in the program.
- All residents must be gainfully employed and maintain employment while at Front Porch Housing.
- Financial responsibility for full rent and utilities is required.
- No overnight visits from the opposite sex or sexual activity inside the apartment.
- All children must be supervised by a responsible adult at all times.
- All animals must be approved by Front Porch Housing staff. Owners will be required to adhere to the Service and Emotional Support Animal policy.

Community Living Responsibilities

- Behavior that puts other housemates or the housing community at risk may result in eviction.
- Any visits from extended family or guests must be approved by housemates and staff. All visitors must exit the property by 9:30PM.

- Housemates and Front Porch Housing staff should be notified if you are going to be away from the house overnight.

- All appliances, furniture, and personal items in the common areas of the house should be accessible to all housemates

- Standard quiet hours are 10:00PM-7:00AM.

Support Services Engagement

- A release of information to allow Front Porch Housing staff to discuss your transition with caseworkers, counselors, or doctors is expected.

- Participation in care plan meetings and a monthly follow-up is required.

- Weekly attendance at re:generation or an approved Grace Church care group, and a church service is required.

- Attendance at quarterly housing meetings is required.

- All residents are required to participate in a minimum of 6 equipping classes and 6 social gatherings per year.

- Front Porch staff will maintain copies of keys and will conduct random monthly house checks. You do not need to be present for Grace staff to enter.

If any of the guidelines are not upheld, residents can be evicted from the property and any deposits forfeited.
